Q1 Citizen initiative ballot measures are laws placed on the ballot for a vote of the people by the people. Arizona’s Voter Protection Act prevents politicians from tampering with laws created by the voters through citizen initiative ballot measures. Now these politicians want to get rid of the Voter Protection Act. Do you think we should keep Arizona’s Voter Protection Act, which prevents politicians from tampering with laws created by the voters through citizen initiative ballot measures, or do you think we should get rid of it?

Think we should keep the Voter Protection Act 83%
Think we should get rid of the Voter Protection Act..... 7%

Q3 Arizona voters have used the citizen initiative ballot measure process since Arizona became a state in 1912 to advance policy when politicians fail to take responsibility for issues important to voters. This is an Arizona tradition, and a state constitutional right that Arizonans can use to override politicians' bad decisions or inaction. Now politicians want to manipulate the rules to take that right away, because a broad coalition of voters used it to pass a law they and their special interest funders don't like. Would you support or oppose the right of Arizonans to put measures on the ballot?

Support the constitutional right of Arizonans to put measures on the ballot..... 87%
Oppose the constitutional right of Arizonans to put measures on the ballot..... 8%
